Definition of Bullying

The Government defines bullying as:

'Behaviour by an individual or group, usually repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally.'

The term 'bullying' refers to a range of harmful behaviour, both physical and psychological. Bullying behaviour usually has the following four features:

It is repetitive and persistent – though sometimes a single incident can have precisely the same impact as persistent behaviour over time, for it can be experienced as part of a continuous pattern and can be extremely threatening and intimidating.

2.

It is intentionally harmful – though occasionally the distress it causes is not consciously intended by all of those who are responsible;

3.

It involves an imbalance of power, leaving someone feeling helpless to prevent it or put a stop to it;

4.

It causes feelings of distress, fear, loneliness and lack of confidence in those who are at the receiving end.

Mount Tamar's child friendly definition is based on the STOP principal;

Several Times On Purpose'

Although one-off incidents can bear many characteristics of bullying, such incidents do not constitute bullying and are defined as incidents of harassment or prejudice. These incidents may be equally serious as incidents of bullying, thus we endeavour to deal with them following the same guidelines.

Bullying does not just occur in childhood but also in adulthood, with similarly serious consequences for all those involved.

It is also possible for members of staff to be bullied by the children in their care.

Types of Bullying

Bullying may take various forms, including:

Physical

- Kicking or hitting
- Prodding, pushing or spitting
- Other physical assault
- Intimidating behaviour
- Interference with personal property
- Deliberate targeted exclusion from peer-group activities
- Extortion (e.g. of pocket-money or items in packed lunch)

Verbal/Psychological

- Threats or taunts
- Shunning / ostracism

- Name calling / verbal abuse
- The refusal to acknowledge the cultural/ racial/ familial background of an individual
- The refusal to acknowledge/ respect the sexuality or gender identity of an individual
- Innuendo
- Spreading of rumours
- Making inappropriate comments in relation to appearance

Peer on Peer Abuse;

This is when a child abuses another child. Peer-on-peer abuse usually involves one, or a combination, of the following:

- Domestic abuse – young people who experience physical, emotional, sexual and/or financial abuse, and coercive control, in their intimate relationships, as well as family relationships
- Child Exploitation – those under the age of 18 who are sexually abused in the context of exploitative relationships, contexts and situations, by a person of any age, including another young person.
- Serious youth violence – any offence of most serious violence or weapon-enabled crime, where the victim is aged 19 or younger, e.g. wounding with intent, rape, murder and grievous bodily harm.
- Harmful sexual behaviour – young people displaying sexual behaviours that are outside of developmentally “normative” parameters.

Prejudice-related bullying (e.g. racist, homophobic, disablist, sexist)

Any of the above examples may be experienced within prejudice-related bullying.

Further, more specific examples may include:

- Physical, verbal, written, on-line or text abuse or ridicule based on differences of the protected characteristics that are protected by the Equality Act 2010 age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage or civil partnership (in employment only), pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation (whether relating to the object of the bullying or relating to a member of their family or a friend)
- Refusal to cooperate with others on the basis of any of the above
- Negative stereotyping on the basis of any of the above
- Promoting offensive materials such as racist or homophobic leaflets, posters, graffiti, magazines or computer software on school premises
- Failing to actively discourage such material from within the school community
- Refusing to use ones chosen moniker or personal pronoun
- Continued association of a word/ term that is primarily used to connote a minority group with negativity or aggression

The specific unacceptability of prejudice-related bullying should be explicitly discussed in the classroom on a termly basis.

Sexual

- Unwanted/inappropriate physical contact
- Sexual innuendo

- Suggestive propositioning
- Exposure to age-inappropriate themes or material
- Distribution/display of pornographic material aimed at an individual
- Graffiti with sexual content aimed at an individual

Sexual bullying can spring from, or be expressed within, prejudice-related attitudes and motivations (e.g. sexism, homophobia, transphobia).

Gifted & Talented

- Name calling, innuendo or negative peer pressure based on high levels of ability or effort
- Ostracism resulting from perceptions of high levels of ability

The above categories of bullying are not mutually exclusive.

Cyber-bullying

An increasing amount of bullying by school age pupils is that which can be described as cyber-bullying. Cyber bullying is a way of carrying out bullying as detailed in the categories above. Hence, it is not a kind of bullying itself but a method.

Such incidents can include:

- Abuse on-line or via text message
- Interfering with electronic files
- Deliberate exclusion from online groups, forums or networks
- Undisclosed covert filming or photography of an individual
- Setting up or promoting inappropriate websites
- Inappropriate sharing of images from webcams / mobile phones etc.
- Interfering with email accounts

At Mount Tamar School we aim to deal quickly and efficiently with incidents of Cyber-bullying. Children will be encouraged to report any incidents to staff, and will be taught not to delete any messages.

The ICT Technician is able to monitor all email accounts and saved files. This allows us to check for inappropriate activity. We filter internet access and websites to which the children can gain access.

The Effects of Bullying

The impact and severity of bullying may vary. It is generally perceived as a way of exploiting and manipulating one's own perception of difference. Bullying always makes the victim feel hurt and destroys self-esteem.

Bullying has an equally serious impact on the bullies themselves and is often indicative of anxiety or trauma in the history or presentation of the person who bullies.

We understand that it is imperative for bullying to be dealt with in its initial stages. This is because we recognise the potential for serious harm that can occur if bullying is allowed to escalate. Children who have been bullied are at a significantly higher risk of self-harm and suicide. We know that bullying impacts seriously upon school attendance.

The Anti Bullying Alliance

Mount Tamar uses anti bullying alliance strategies to combat bullying within the school.

These strategies include:

- Ensure that there are easily accessible ways/systems for pupils to report bullying. There are identified staff who will receive any concerns related to bullying. The pupils should know that their concerns will be treated seriously and acted upon.
- Impress on the perpetrator that what he/she has done is unacceptable
- Deter him/her from repeating the behaviour. Signal to others that the behaviour is unacceptable
- Engaging with parents/carers as soon as issues come to light. Always include the parents of the victim and the perpetrator
- Create a culture where bullying is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Ensure that all groups within the school- gender based/abilitybased/sexualorientation based are valued. Develop pupil to pupil support systems such as peer mentors or peer mediation
- The school will actively seek, listen to, and value the views of pupils. The school should be able to demonstrate where these views/deals have led to change

Links to Other Policies

This policy impacts upon and should be used in conjunction with the following complimentary policies:

- Teaching and Learning policies
- Single Equality Scheme
- Behaviour Policy
- Restraint Policy
- Child Protection & Safeguarding Policy
- Health and Safety policy
- Whistleblowing Policy
- Confidentiality Policy

The various strategies of our Positive Behaviour Policy aim to encourage good behaviour and consideration towards others. If the Positive Behaviour Policy is implemented effectively, within an inclusive educational and pastoral environment, there will be few incidents of bullying. At Mount Tamar School we recognise that no school is ever completely devoid of bullying incidents and our aim is for there to be a minimum of such occurrences which are swiftly and effectively dealt with.

Our Positive Behaviour Policy promotes a positive whole school approach to behaviour.

This is done by:

- enhancing the self-esteem of all members of the school community
- clearly stating the boundaries of acceptable behaviour (rules)
- reinforcing positive habits (rewards)
- encouraging personal responsibility
- developing interpersonal skills
- responding promptly, firmly and consistently to pupils who test those boundaries (sanctions)
- striving to understand that children understand and experience the world in different ways.

Strategies for the Prevention of Bullying

A proactive approach to teaching and learning will help to engage children in learning, build self-esteem and make children part of the school learning team. We shall consider different learning styles and provide a curriculum that aims to be of interest to all pupils.

We recognise that the example that is set by adults in their relationships with other adults and with children will have a great effect on the way that children behave towards others.

We raise an awareness of bullying and its effects both on the victim and on the bully through circle time, assemblies, role play, stories and discussion with individuals. We aim to build an anti-bullying ethos. This may include direct exploration of bullying related issues as well as diversity awareness raising work.

Such work must be regularly embedded in the general curriculum, in order that such messages are not forgotten and we do not see a repeat of previously demonstrated behaviours. The school has regular cross curricular days where pupils work with others who are not in their usual circle of friends. This promotes friendships and therefore understanding.

By raising awareness we aim;

- to create a culture where bullying is not accepted and does not happen
- to encourage those who are bullied to tell an appropriate person
- to help individuals cope with bullying
- to help individuals to respond to bullying

All of those strategies which are set out in our Positive Behaviour Policy to promote good behaviour will help to prevent bullying.

Co-operative behaviour is encouraged e.g. through circle time, group work, a strong school identity.

The development of a caring, supportive and trusting relationship between adults and children at Mount Tamar School will help to prevent incidents of bullying. Members of the school community need to feel confident that reported incidents will be appropriately responded to and will be taken seriously.

Other people within the school also have an important role to play in the prevention of bullying:

- any person may act to prevent situations which they see arising. Members of the school will be made aware of the important role and responsibilities that they have in spotting inappropriate behaviour or language and in reporting to key members of staff. Children will be taught to report and support individuals who may be being bullied.

- playground buddies may be appointed to work with a named child, encourage good play or intervene where children are being unkind or when a child needs a friend.

Relevant access to outside agencies and support will be provided where necessary and certain helpline numbers (e.g. Childline) will be constantly available throughout the school.

We appreciate that some children find it very difficult to maintain and build appropriate friendships, and we will endeavour to teach such individuals these vital skills.

We will continually evaluate our provision at playtime, in order to encourage appropriate behaviour and build positive relationships during unstructured times.

Circle Time/Pastoral Discussions

Circle time/pastoral discussions are an important part of preventing and coping with bullying at Mount Tamar School. This time takes place regularly within classes. It:

- builds teams
- creates a safe place to explore issues of concern
- explores the handling of relationships
- enhances communication, both speaking and listening
- encourages understanding of the views of others
- develops tolerance
- encourages a problem solving approach to problems
- affirms the strengths and enhances the self-esteem of each member

Reporting and Recording Bullying

Children will be made aware that they must report incidents of bullying towards themselves or others to an adult. Parents will be reminded to report any concerns that they have.

Support staff will be encouraged to refer incidents of bullying to a teacher or the Headteacher.

Reports of bullying among staff should be promptly reported to the Headteacher who will act or offer advice accordingly.

Children and parents will be reminded that all reports of bullying will be listened to, investigated and, if necessary, acted on.

All reports of bullying will be listened to, investigated and, if necessary, acted on according to our policy.

It is essential that all bullying incidents of a phobic/racist/disablist nature are recorded in writing immediately in accordance with guidance provided by the Equality and Diversity Service. A copy of any such report must be given to the Headteacher.

We record all incidents of bullying via ARBOR (Mount Tamar Schools incident recording system) or in extreme circumstances, CPOMS (Mount Tamar Schools safeguarding recording software). The Headteacher will ensure that statistics from this log are reported to Governors each term. Incidents of bullying may be referred to the police.

Responding to Bullying – Children Who Exhibit Bullying Behaviour

If bullying does occur, all children exhibiting such behaviour will be made aware that bullying will not be tolerated.

Key points in our response to bullying will be:

- never to ignore reported or suspected bullying
- not to make assumptions or come across towards a victim as judgemental
- to listen carefully to all accounts (sometimes a written account will be more revealing)
- to adopt a problem solving, pro-active approach
- to follow up repeatedly

The response will depend on the severity of the incident. The response may include:

- discussion between adult and children involved
- questioning of all individuals involved, including any possible witnesses to try and establish an objective viewpoint of what has happened
- note taking and record keeping where appropriate
- a problem solving approach, where children find their own solution through discussion with a teacher present, if this is considered appropriate by the victim
- class discussion in Circle Time (no names)

We believe that all children, regardless of the apparent actions, have the right to be heard and to explain their 'side of the story' without any kind of pre-judgement.

Therefore, it is vital that staff do not make judgements of any kind about children until an appropriate process has been undertaken and as many facts established as possible.

If bullying persists further strategies will be adopted:

- sanctions as those listed in our behaviour policy
- discussion with parents, both to inform parents and to find a way forward together
- involvement of external agencies
- part time or temporary exclusion
- permanent exclusion (as a last resort, after all other routes have failed or as a response to an incident of extreme severity)

We must remember that for a child who uses bullying behaviour this can often be the only identity in which they feel comfortable and secure. Such children can often wish to be more socially acceptable models, but can find it is increasingly difficult to step away from their position as 'the bully'.

We must ensure that this myth of identity is not perpetuated by staff or by children. When incidents of bullying have occurred, we must support all those involved. This should include allowing each child ways in which to adopt a more successful and purposeful role and identity within the school community.

Responding to Bullying – Supporting children who experience bullying

Children must be made aware that they will be supported and taken seriously if they report bullying. The slogan 'Don't Suffer in Silence' will make this idea more memorable. Children should be made aware that they do not 'deserve' to be bullied. We will endeavour to teach the children a variety of anti-bullying techniques which they can use in key situations and to reinforce the individual self esteem and self-worth of children at all times.

Bullying amongst Staff

We recognise the seriousness of bullying in the workplace and the impact that this can have on whole-school relationships, morale and productivity. We cannot best support the children, if the staff team is not working together as a team. We aim to support individuals who may be experiencing such bullying at work, and would endeavour to help them find ways to tackle bullying behaviour. This may include additional training, removal of staff from certain environments, or re-assertion of job descriptions and roles. Bullying among the staff body should be immediately reported to the Headteacher. If informal resolutions are unsuccessful, the formal disciplinary procedures will be put in place.

We recognise that such bullying among adults often manifests as seemingly negligible, low-level psychological incidents, rather than more overt, physical bullying. We would encourage staff to remember that such repeated incidents do constitute bullying and should be dealt with, even if they appear comparatively minor.

It is important that we clearly give the message that anyone can be a victim of bullying and that our school is one that treasures and embraces all differences and abilities.

Roles and Responsibilities

Adults at school all have a part to play in preventing and responding to bullying.

All staff are made aware of this policy through their induction and should subscribe to it.

If adults become aware of bullying they must respond or refer the matter on to a teacher or the Headteacher or the Chair of Governors, who will respond.

Children must be made aware that they should report all incidents of bullying to an adult.

This is their part of the responsibility to confront bullying together.

Adults at school must also be vigilant for signs of bullying that has not been reported. The victim may show signs including absence, anxiety, pains and sadness.

Involving Outside Agencies

When strategies within school have little effect, or when additional support would be beneficial, outside agencies may be involved. This may also be used to raise awareness of general bullying issues or to gain specific input on prejudice or phobic/ racist bullying.

Such groups will also be approached to provide staff training as necessary.

Bullying Outside of the School Premises

The school is not directly responsible for bullying outside of the school premises; however we do have a responsibility to do all within our power to ensure that children are safe on the journey to and from school. We aim to influence children's attitudes to help to decrease incidents of bullying outside of school.

Pupils will be encouraged to tell an adult, family member or teacher, if they are bullied outside of school. Steps taken might include:

- discussion with parents of bully or victim
- talking to the local police/PCSO
- talking to pupils about how to handle bullying outside of the school's premises

Implementing the Policy

The response to bullying needs to be consistent as set out in this policy. Everyone needs to be aware that:

- bullying will not be tolerated
- bullying should be reported
- bullying will be responded to.

Staff and pupils will need regular reminders of the policy over time to ensure that it is remembered.

Monitoring, Evaluating and Reviewing the Policy

The implementation of this policy must be monitored to ensure that it is being followed and that it is effective. This will be by staff through staff questionnaires and by children through the School Parliament and through discussion.

The policy will be reviewed and if necessary updated annually.
