

LaunchpadLive

Help your students to find the career of their dreams!

If your students have a career in mind or are still searching for their dream job Launchpad Live is here to help.

Packed with employers, training providers, colleges, universities and professional bodies, we aim to motivate and inspire young people using hands-on demonstrations and activities.

They will be taken on a career journey like no other, learning about the diverse careers available in Plymouth's key sectors and finding out what jobs are like now and what they will be like in the future.

This won't just be an event that will inspire them, this will be an event that will Launch them on their career journey.
